Co-creative projects originate in partnership with participants rather than based solely on institutional goals. A community group may approach the museum seeking assistance to make a project possible, or the institution may invite outside participants to propose and work with staff on a project of mutual benefit.

The Book of Enoch - Hermetics

The Book of Enoch is considered to have been written by Enoch, the seventh from Adam. It is considered an apocryphal book as well as a part of the Pseudepigrapha (literally means "falsely ascribed" is a collection of works supposedly written by a biblical character), although it is not a part of the canonical Apocrypha.
